Your support means new Canadian theatrical works will continue to be developed on the Theatre Orangeville stage. You will be making - great theatre, close to home - a reality for years to come!

You understand that Theatre Orangeville is so much more than the main stage. Together, we offer children theatre programs to grow confidence, friendships, and memories that will last a lifetime!

You envision a community that celebrates the ability of every person. With your help, Theatre Orangeville can continue our life-changing mission to bring creative opportunities to people with disabilities.

"The Theatre's mere existence within our community has given us all a sense of pride, knowing that some of the finest talent and literary culture are coming to Orangeville"

D.L.

"The Theatre Orangeville Young Company is such an inclusive space, and at a time when I wasn't totally comfortable with myself in school, it was just a great place to go and meet people like me"

D.R.

"I used to get mad about having autism. It still makes me mad sometimes, but now I think it helps me to see the world in different ways."

S.HG.

A trusted advisor can offer the best possible options for you.
